New ASBC Richmond Community Group

We are pleased to announce that our new ASBC Richmond Community Group will start their bi-monthly meetings in the fall. We are thankful that parent volunteer Paul Wong stepped up to facilitate this group.

Details of this new group are as follows:

Where: Steveston Community Centre, Richmond

When: Bi-monthly meetings on the last Monday of the month, at 7-9pm.

Who: All of us in the autism community are welcome to attend, especially parents and family members.

What: There will be speakers for most meetings, sharing on topics related to autism. Parents can connect with each other for support and information.

How: Paul Wong is the facilitator for the Richmond Group. There may be a co-facilitator (to be confirmed).

Our first kick-off meeting:

Date: October 4, 2010 (Monday)

Time: 7-9pm

Place: Steveston Community Centre, Richmond

Topic: Back to SchoolΣ

Speakers: Nancy Walton, parent and teacher; Sharon Baxter, behavior consultant

Please mark your calendar. Details to follow in mid-September. Note that we switched the meeting date to the first Monday of October to accommodate speaker availability.
